A World's Fair Mystery

AN INTERACTIVE ADVENTURE INTO CHICAGO HISTORY

"Make no little plans;
they have no
magic
to stir men's blood
and probably themselves
will not be realized."

- Daniel H. Burnham

Chief Architect of the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893

A THEFT ON THE FAIRGROUNDS!

Eight diamonds have been stolen from the Kimberly Diamond Mining Exhibit!
An urgent telegram is sent requesting your help -- how can you refuse?
Besides, you've been dying to see what has been called the wonder of the age -- Chicago's Columbian Exposition.

But this is no simple theft. And as theft turns to kidnapping, and kidnapping to murder, you find yourself at the center of a plot the extent of which you can only begin to imagine...

"☆☆☆☆☆!"

"1893: A World's Fair Mystery is fascinating, entertaining, deviously educational, and simply one of the most fantastic adventure games I have ever played"
