General Questions.

How Do I use the Spare Improbability Drive?

First of all do not plug the drive into the Bridge console until the Heart of Gold is Attack by missiles. However you can still use the drive before that happens to teleport yourself to different locations through the game as follows. Plug the small plug on the Improbability Drive into the Atomic Vector Plotter, then put the long dangly bit on the Plotter into a Cup of Tea and turn on the Drive. (Of course Real Tea will give you a much greater range.)

How do I read the microscopic letters on the circuit board?

You can read the letters with the magnifying glass found in the tool box.

Where can I find some Real Tea?

Plug the Nutrimat\Computer Interface into drinks machine in the galley and push the pad.

How Do I stop the missiles hitting the ship?

Plug the large plug on the Improbability Drive into the bridge console and turn on the Drive.

What should I do with the Flowerpot?

Put all four piece of fluff into the pot, then when the Fluff Plant starts to sprout take the flowerpot into the Sauna.

What is the fruit of the Fluff Plant used for?

If you eat the fruit you will have a vision, in which you will see yourself handing Marvin the correct tool to open the jammed hatch.
