Enter the World of INFOCOM'S Interactive Fiction

In the realm of the master storytellers, you'll find yourself venturing into places you've never been before. You'll develop the cunning of a pirate and the intuition of a master sleuth. You'll fly like a bat, read minds, and turn foes into newts. You'll travel from the far reaches of the galaxy to 17th century West Indies. You'll explore a glitzy Malibu mansion and a haunted castle in Cornwall. You'll meet characters ranging from the lovable robot Floyd to the fiendish Leather Goddesses of Phobos.

You'll experience all of it, every step of the way. Because in Infocom's interactive fiction, YOU are the main character.

Infocom's interactive fiction is like any good book in that it communicates in prose, tells a story that progresses through time, and has characters who change and react to each other as the story moves along. The difference is that YOU take the leading role in the story, going places, interacting with people, striving to outwit opponents, and confronting a wealth of puzzles and predicaments. You communicate with the story in conversational English, deciding what to do each step of the way. As in real life, your decisions influence what happens later on.

To introduce you to our special type of storytelling, the Sampler includes an interactive fiction tutorial, which takes you through a brief scene from WISHBRINGER.® The tutorial helps you learn how to communicate with an interactive story and gives you tips on solving the types of puzzles you'll encounter in the excerpts.

The Sampler also offers a taste of three very different interactive stories: LEATHER GODDESSES OF PHOBOS,™ ZORK® I, and TRINITY.™

In WISHBRINGER, you're an ordinary mail clerk in a scenic seaside town. But things become quite extraordinary when you deliver a mysterious envelope to a magic shop and embark on a series of mythic adventures in a town that's turned into a nightmare. In the tutorial, you'll find that getting to the shop isn't as easy as it seems.

In LEATHER GODDESSES OF PHOBOS, the year is 1936, and the evil Leather Goddesses are plotting to turn Earth into their private pleasure palace—unless you can stop them. The story has three playing modes (Tame, Suggestive, and Lewd) and is equally enjoyable for men and women. In the excerpt, you embark on a racy romp from Joe's Bar in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, to a dungeon on Phobos to a steamy Venusian jungle.

ZORK I is considered the classic work of interactive fiction. It takes you to the ruins of an empire far underground, where you'll explore strange and wondrous places and meet the exotic creatures who dwell there. Your goal is to find the twenty fabulous Treasures of Zork. The Sampler excerpt includes your discovery of the ancient caverns of the empire.

In TRINITY, a London vacation turns to disaster at the onset of World War III. Your fate is sealed . . . unless you escape to a fantasy universe where every atomic explosion is mysteriously connected. In this excerpt, you search for the gateway to the secret universe.

Now it's time for you to venture into the world of Infocom's interactive fiction. Load the Sampler disk into your computer, and see for yourself why Infocom has earned the title of The Master Storytellers.
