And when you order two or more games ($50 minimum), you'll get a FREE T-SHIRT!

Captain Blood by Infogrames

Powerful graphics and visual effects make this sci-fi adventure a sensory feast. You're Captain Blood, half human and half machine. Five of your clones are scattered throughout the galaxy, draining your life force. You must find and assimilate them before the ship's auto-bionic functions render you completely inhuman. Death defying flights through hyperspace and across dangerous terrains lead to strange worlds with alien inhabitants. They have the information you need to find and destroy your clones — if you're clever enough to get it.

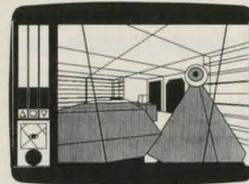

Available for Amiga, Atari ST, C64/128, and IBM.

The Colony by David Smith

Never before has there been such smooth 3-D animation and realism in a sci-fi adventure. Unprecedented graphic technology and your computer's mouse let you explore a complete and unrestricted world. As Regional Marshal in the intergalactic forces, you must unravel The Colony's mysteries. Where are all the human inhabitants? What is the meaning of the strange prism-shaped pods? What is the origin of the hostile aliens? If you've got the answers, don't let anything in this world keep you from The Colony.

Available for IBM and Macintosh.

Visions of Aftermath: The Boomtown by Chivalry Software

In this leading-edge post nuclear strategic simulation, you are the architect of your fate in a world that challenges even the very best gamers. You create the goals — from survival to world domination. You decide how to handle the raiding hordes — with friendship, force, or finesse. Because it's your wits, your ambition, your ethics that will make the difference between mere survival and a life worth living.

Available for IBM.

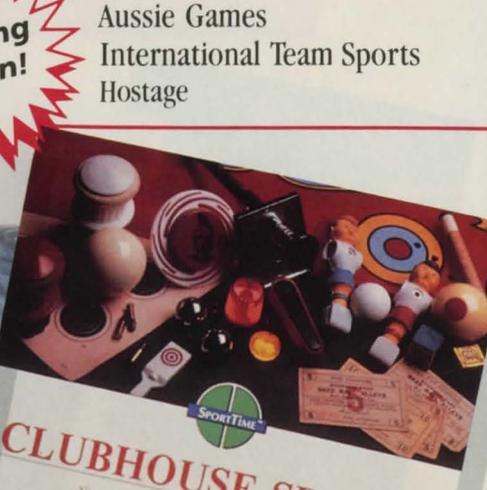

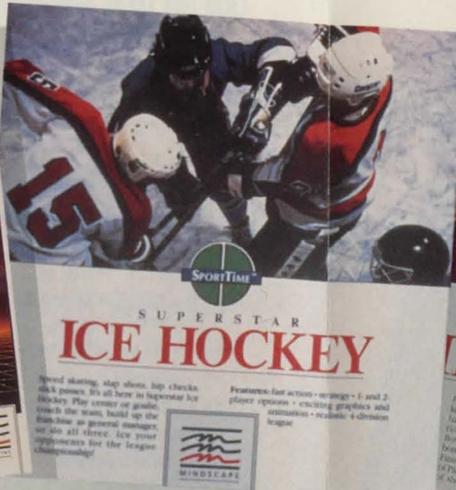

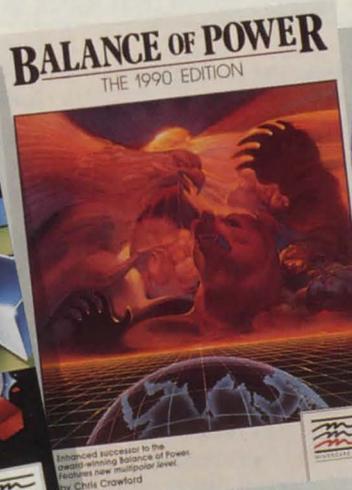

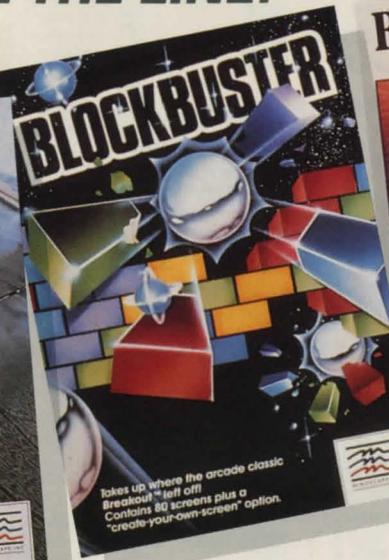

Willow™ The Computer Game

Advanced computer technology, featuring breathtaking digitized graphics, brings to life all the magic and marvel of Willow. Side by side with your favorite Willow characters, you must tackle a series of seven separate action-packed adventures. And when you have mastered the vast labyrinth, the mystical spellcasting, or the perilous sword fight, a reset option creates a whole new game!

Available for IBM. Call for availability of C64/128.

Harrier Combat Simulator

by Mirrorsoft

Strap yourself into the most sophisticated and deadly close-range combat aircraft of today—the Harrier Jump Jet—and enter the dangerous world of vertical takeoffs, barrel roll attacks, and heat-seeking sidewinders. Your mission is to destroy enemy headquarters 500 miles away. Designed in conjunction with British Aerospace.

Available for Amiga, Atari ST, C64/128, and IBM.

Blockbuster

by Audiogenic Software Ltd.

The concept is simple: You must destroy each brick before advancing to the next level. Simple? It takes strategy and skill to shatter each new screen and avoid dive-bombing aliens. With sophisticated “brick-bashing” weaponry to earn, 80 screens to master, and 48 more to create yourself, this blockbuster takes up where the arcade classic Breakout™ left off.

Available for Amiga, Atari ST, C64/128, IBM, and IBM 3.5".

Balance of Power: The 1990 Edition

by Chris Crawford

Experience firsthand the pressures of global leadership in Balance of Power: the 1990 Edition. The original Balance of Power was hailed by the New York Times as “one of the most sophisticated strategic simulations in America other than Pentagon war games.” Now the 1990 Edition takes all the features of this award-winning game and adds numerous enhancements, including an updated database and a new multipolar level. The result is the ultimate simulation of geopolitics in a nuclear age.

Available for IBM and Macintosh. Call for availability for Amiga, Apple IIGS, and Atari ST.

Superstar Ice Hockey

by Ed Ringler/DesignStar Consultants

“Superstar Ice Hockey is the best action-strategy sports simulation ever published. Period!” — Aboy! It's actually three games in one. You can play, coach, or manage. Take the ice as a center or goalie and slap shoot, hipcheck, pass, and block. As a coach, set up and rotate your players' lines. As a general manager, trade and draft players. You choose the level of difficulty!

Available for Amiga, Apple II series, IIGS, Atari ST, C64/128, IBM and IBM 3.5".

Indoor Sports

by Ed Ringler/DesignStar Consultants

A little air hockey? No sweat. Like to bowl? Then roll on. Darts anyone? Double your pleasure. And Ping Pong? Simply smashing. Play against other players or against the computer. But play hard because these four fast-paced games are every bit as fun and challenging as the real thing. Realistic 3-D graphics and animation!

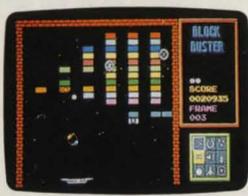

Available for the Amiga, Apple II series, Atari ST, C64/128, IBM, and IBM 3.5".

Clubhouse Sports

by Ed Ringler/DesignStar Consultants

Continuing in the tradition of top-selling Indoor Sports, Clubhouse Sports features six more popular indoor games. Take on a friend or compete against the computer. Choose from foosball, billiards, skeeball, crazy pool, pinball and a shooting gallery. All six offer a variety of game options with colorful, realistic graphics and sound!

Available for C64/128. Call for availability for IBM.

Three Multi-Award Winning Graphic Adventures!

With just a click of your mouse, explore rich worlds alive with digitized sound and animation.

Deja Vu: A Nightmare Comes True

by ICOM Simulations

You wake up with a bump on the back of the head and three bullets missing from your gun. You don't know who you are or how you got there. But one thing's for certain; someone has been murdered and you've got to uncover the guilty party—or take the rap yourself!

Uninvited

by ICOM Simulations

A car accident on a dark lonely road has left you unconscious. When you come to you find that your brother, a passenger in your car, is gone. You see an old mansion and wander in, uninvited, to call for help. But once inside, it becomes apparent that this Gothic abode has fallen under the spell of black magic!

Shadowgate

by ICOM Simulations

Enter Shadowgate; a once shining fortress, now an evil, dark smoldering ruin. In your hands lies the fate of your land. The diabolical Warlock Lord is plotting to raise the deadliest of Titans—a beast of incredible evil. Only you, the last of an ancient line of kings, can hope to keep the Warlock from his vile deed.
