You, LUKE WARME, sip on your tenth and last shot of liquor. No money and down on your luck, you wonder where your next drink is going to come from.

Among the smokey, noisy atmosphere, you just manage to pick out the voices of some old timers sitting at a nearby table:

"Yep Jake, The legend goes that them pesky indians bury their gold in the grave of their chief. I hear that one of the APACHE chiefs has just kicked the bean-can. Only trouble is there are some mighty strange powers at work in their territory . . ."

Gold . . . GOLD! That's music to my ears Mister! Strange powers or not I'm gonna git ma hands on it!
