Having successfully completed your training you are now ready to avenge your father and take back the scrolls of Ketsuin from the wicked Yaemon to appease the God Kwon and release him from eternal hell. Your quest starts outside Quench Heart Keep where you must find the keys to gain access. Once inside you must kill the three Guardians of the Keep. Beware, as they must be killed in a specific way and in a certain order.

Use your Shuriken wisely as once used you have only your unarmed combat to rely on.

As you fight your way through the many adversaries you may call on the God Kwon to replenish your endurance and inner force, but beware his temper is short and you may anger him.
