H.R.H

the storyline

At last it's Wednesday morning! Sitting hunched beneath the letter box waiting for your dole giro, you rummage through an ash tray for a last remaining dog end. After what seems an eternity, the letter arrives!

Hallelujah! Eagerly ripping open the DHSS envelope you clutch the giro to your heaving chest, gibbering uncontrollably.

Regaining your composure you notice with a gasp of horror that it isn't your name on the giro! Thunderstruck you rack your brain for a local pub called the Queen Elizabeth . . . until you notice THE address.

The giro slips to the floor, the long line of zeros' on it staring accusingly up at you, like Princess Margaret after you've nicked her last bottle of brown ale. Your heart throbs violently like Prince Andrew's chopper — but what can you do? It looks as if you've got the Queen's giro — surely she must have yours?

Will she have to resort to selling the corgis to Mac Donalds to pay for a new chainsaw for Prince William's birthday present . . . ? How is she going to afford meals on wheels for the Queen Mother . . . ? And what about her clothing bill from Oxfam . . . ?

Hoping to save the threatened dignity of our most gracious monarch you see yourself being knighted as you hand the Queen her dole money . . .

As mentally stimulating as a wet-weekend at Balmoral . . .

As complicated as catholic contraception . . .

Less taste than Bob Geldof's jock strap . . .

. . . THE GAME FOR ALL THE (ROYAL) FAMILY . . .

What they said about H.R.H.

Princess Margaret:

"Bloody hell! One could buy a bottle of gin and twenty fags for £6.95!"

The Queen:

"The only royal seal this is going to get is swimming around in Whipsnade Zoo."

Margaret Thatcher:

"I tried to flush it down the loo but it wouldn't sink . . . had much more luck with the Belgrano."

Ronald Reagan:

"We think your Royal Family are great . . . I particularly liked the mad one with the hump."

Prince Andrew:

"I couldn't stop playing with it . . . bonking good fun!!"
