LORD OF THE JUNGLE

Written by Simon Avery

Programmed by Philip Reynolds

You play the part of Tizpan, who lives in a normal bamboo hut, in the deepest of all jungles. Untouched by outside contact, you survive with the aid of Jayne, your lovely lady savage. You awake on morning, and she is gone, there are signs of a struggle and you get the feeling that she has been kidnapped. You resolve to find her, and you start your quest at a junction of paths in the jungle....

This adventure game understands all the standard adventure commands i.e. North, East, South, West, Up and Down which can be abbreviated to N, S, E, W, U, D. Some useful verbs are EXAMINE, LOOK, GET, DROP, GIVE and many more. Other important commands are INVENTORY or (I) will give you a list of what you are carrying, SAVE will save the game position to tape and LOAD will restore a previously saved position from tape.
