WELCOME TO GREAT PLAYS

Inside this catalog you will find fun, excitement, adventure, challenges and rewards for everyone in your family. Games, games and more games. We've also included some educational programs disguised as GAMES! ...AND that's not all!

We've also thrown in bribes to entice you further. If you purchase more than one game, we'll give you stuff for FREE! (look inside the back cover for details)

SO...

If you like to play games (and, by the way, what's wrong with people who don't, anyway?), then take a look inside this catalog. If you're unable to find something you can't live without, you must be asleep. Well, wake up and grab your joystick, 'cause only the best can make the really great plays!

A-TRAIN™ & A-TRAIN CONSTRUCTION SET

Sure A-Train has trains ...

But there's a lot more to it than making tracks. This simulation gives you the triple challenge of trains, cities and money: design and run a profitable railroad, grow a city and build a financial empire. The six scenarios will take all the organizational talent, planning skills and fiscal genius you've got. Maybe more.

And now that the A-Train Construction Set is included, you can create new scenarios for A-Train, modify existing games, or blow off the limitations of the game entirely and build your own railroad and surrounding city exactly the way you want it – without any monetary constraints.

DINOPARK TYCOON

DinoPark Tycoon – a combination of math, science, business ... and luck!

In DinoPark Tycoon™, kids will need to use all the skills at their command – and hope for a little luck – to turn dinosaur mania into a successful theme park! As they run their park, they must plan carefully. They must know when to expand and when to stay small. And they must build their park from the ground up. A few bad business decisions and their entire park could face extinction! What types of dinosaurs should they buy? How much should they charge for admission? Should they put up a concession stand? While overseeing daily park business, kids will have to keep an eye on ticket sales, supplies, income, expenses, dinosaur inventory, staff salaries, and more.

AMAZON TRAIL

Explore the mysterious Amazon with this learning adventure.

At the request of a mysterious dream jaguar, you'll journey through time from the mouth of the Amazon to its lofty sources in the Andes high country with The Amazon Trail™. Your mission? Find the medicinal plant that will save the ancient Incas from extinction and deliver it to the Inca king – if you don't become an Amazon casualty! Use your guidebook and heed the advice of your guide or you might wander up the wrong tributary. Fish for food. Avoid snakebites and hungry piranha. Steer clear of whirlpools and hidden log jams. Look out for headhunters and greedy conquistadors. In your search for the plant, you'll meet as many as 30 other historic explorers, naturalists, scientists, and natives.

ARMOUR-GEDDON

DOS

The Balkan War of 1997 devastated the earth...

Decades later, two conflicting factions survive: The hostile and combative surface dwellers, and the subterranean society of the Earth Defense Network (EDEN). As a warrior member of EDEN's High Command, it's your sworn duty to defend your civilization from the marauding surface dwellers and destroy their deadly laser beam cannon before it annihilates your people.

Armour-Geddon puts you in the front line! Plan the attack and leap into combat, battling the enemy from the cockpit of six different high-tech vehicles. Striking from the air in your stealth fighter, bomber or helicopter you eradicate the enemy's power grid.

Decimating enemy installations, you retrieve their advanced weapons systems in your fleet of surface attack vehicles. Assembling the captured technology, you develop the only weapon on earth powerful enough to crush the enemy's aggression: the Neutron bomb.

Armour-Geddon takes realism a step further with high speed computer graphics, heads-up cockpit displays, full soundboard support and the sophisticated head to head serial link option that permits two EDEN warriors to simultaneously coordinate their attack.

Any closer to the action and you'd need body armor!

Struggling with insufficient memory is no game

386 MAX gives you the memory to run today's hottest entertainment software. Buy 386MAX and you'll spend less time tweaking configurations and more time dive bombing the enemy at MACH 3. Or outwitting evil wizards who stalk you through dimly lit dungeons. That's because new 386MAX 7 now provides game software with even more memory than its award winning predecessor – without the performance penalty other memory managers make you pay. Get back precious memory stolen by sound boards, CD-ROMs, mice and more. New MAX 7 features like special compressed drive support, MultiConfig Maximize for DOS 6 users and ExtraDOS make 386MAX the game player's choice for top flight memory management. After all, it's one thing to be shot down in the middle of a game, but without adequate memory you'll never get off the ground.

386MAX enhances new versions of DOS to provide more memory than you thought possible

Automatically installs and optimizes your 386, 486 or Pentium processor based system

Seamless support for DoubleSpace, Stacker and others means more hassle-free memory for your games

Provides EMS, XMS and DPMI memory automatically as needed

PAX IMPERIA

The Galactic Empire Simulator

It's sunrise on Canopus Three. You as emperor realize that you're running low on ferrites, pyrrites and other resources that make your star system tick. Since ferrites don't grow on trees, the time has come for you to venture out into deep, dark space in search of new unexplored reservoirs of these precious materials if your species is to survive.

It's also sunrise on the fifth planet in the Topaz star system, a mere hop, skip and a warp drive away from Canopus Three. The emperor on that planet hasn't conquered any worlds lately and just the thought of hearing an opponent plead for mercy has him up, dressed, fed and already meeting with his Protocol advisor to plot his next diabolical takeover.

Welcome to Pax Imperia. The ultimate multiplayer strategy adventure casts you as the leader of an expanding empire on the verge of galactic expansion. Take charge of every situation to insure the welfare of your people. Control everything from setting your budget and taxing your people to designing technology and building ships.

Support for 1 to 16 empires, any number of which can be human or computer players.

Real time or turn based play.

Tactical combat simulator gives you control of fleet action.

Steal information from other players or assassinate their advisors.

Incredible detail, explore and develop everything from new star systems to individual planets and moons.

Build cities, ports, factories, and more, on the surfaces of hundreds of worlds.

Choose from a list of stock species or create your own. And much, much more...
