DETAILS

All games are sophisticated 3-part adventures with masses of text, inventive puzzles and good parsers. Each is beautifully packaged, with an accompanying book, and free cluesheets are available on request.

Jewels of Darkness (Level 9/Rainbird):

The ultimate, mega-mix version of Level 9's acclaimed Colossal, Quest and Dungeon Adventures. Middle Earth in the Age of the Demon Lord.

Silicon Dreams (Level 9/Rainbird):

Level 9's challenging SF trilogy: Snowball. Return to Eden and Worm in Paradise. Save a colony starship, tackle the deadly paradise of Eden's jungles and 'beat the system' in the robot city of Enoch.

Knight Orc (Level 9/Rainbird):

The orcs are revolting and you play Grindleguts, whose task is to team up with other persecuted monsters and defeat the humans for a change.

Gnome Ranger (Level 9):

When Ingrid the Sloane Gnome is banished to the wilds by her exasperated family, the monsters don't know what's hit them!

Time and Magik (Level 9/Mandarin):

Level 9's Magik trilogy: Lords of Time, Red Moon and The Price of Magik - massive games with ten "Adventure of the Year" awards.

Lancelot (Level 9/Mandarin):

relives the legends of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, including their finest hour - the achievement of the Holy Grail.

Ingrid's Back (Level 9, from October 22nd/29th 1988):

stars the gnomes of Little Moaning as they go about their busy lives. Fishing, drinking, sitting out in the rain, that sort of thing... However, Jasper Quickbuck of Ridley's End plots to steamroller them.

Spook (Level 9, from February 18th/25th 1989):

It's not easy being a ghost, especially if you have only three nights to track down your murderers.
