

“Five shameless marketing ploys contrived to get you to do something that, in your heart, you know you should do anyway.”

Contests, goodies and other free stuff.

Listen, we know it's kind of a pain, but here are five good reasons to take a minute and fill out this card.

1. Your game will be officially registered (wow!) with Sierra On-Line and Dynamix. We can't support you if we don't know who you are. Well, actually, we would anyway, but it helps if we know who you are.
2. We'll bribe you with free stuff. Really. You'll get four free issues of InterAction, the magazine of interactive entertainment (an $11.80 value). We stuff every big, bright, full-color issue with a couple tons of game hints, strategy guides, top secrets, interviews with game designers, special sales, and lots of other warped and wonderful stuff, all designed to amuse, inform, soft-sell our other games and convince the world how unbearably cool it is to work for a computer game company (U.S. and Canada only).
3. If we enhance your game, or upgrade it, or find a really awful bug, or build a sequel, we can drop you a note to let you know. And offer it to you real cheap. Sometimes even free.
4. Four times a year we have a drawing, and five winners get every Sierra and Dynamix game available for their machine (meaning currently on our retail price list). Yeah, we've never won anything either, but wouldn't it be cool to have a complete Sierra/Dynamix library? Just send in the card to enter.
5. The information helps us understand our customer demographics better, so we write more convincing market research reports and make those nice, neat bar charts that Ken (our president) likes. It also helps us build better games. Seriously, unless we know what kind of hardware you use and who plays what in your household, we just have to guess what you want to see in future Sierra games. C'mon, give us a hint, huh?

If mailed in the U.S., use the postage paid card. Outside U.S., please place card in envelope and mail.
